

Facebook
Tweet
Google +

Travel and Staying at Clayfest 2018

24-29 September, Irish National Heritage Park, Ireland.

Clayfest Partners

How to Get Here

The Irish National Heritage Park is located 5.5km outside Wexford Town in the southeast corner of Ireland.

GPS: N: 52.348 W: -6.51673

Shuttle Bus

A shuttle bus between Ferrycarrig campsite, Redmond Square (Wexford Town) and the Heritage Park will operate every morning and evening for €3.80 return. Shuttle bus tickets are available HERE.

Tickets must be purchased up to 48 hours in advance of each journey (so that EBUKI can book the right sized bus). Once purchased, tickets are non-refundable.

By Plane

Dublin Airport

<https://www.dublinairport.com/>

The nearest airport is Dublin Airport, 160km from the Irish National Heritage Park and approximately 1¼ hours by car.

As Ireland's largest international airport, Dublin Airport is extremely well connected to every corner of the globe. Numerous low-cost air operate out of Dublin.

Airport buses

There are two direct bus links from Dublin Airport to Wexford Town, which also have pick-ups in Dublin's city centre. Check the website other stops along the route.

Expressway (Dublin Airport to Wexford Town)

<https://expressway.ie/Route-2-dublin-airport-to-wexford>

Expressway runs 14 buses per day and takes 2 hours and 20 minutes from Dublin Airport to the centre of Wexford Town.

Wexford Bus (Dublin Airport to Wexford Town)

<https://www.wexfordbus.com/>

Wexford Bus runs up to 17 buses per day and takes 2 hours and 45 minutes from Dublin Airport to the centre of Wexford Town.

Cork Airport

<https://www.corkairport.com/>

Cork Airport is situated 180km west of Wexford, approximately 2½ hours by car.

There is no direct public transport from Cork to Wexford Town.

By Ferry

Rosslare Europort

<http://rosslareeuroport.irishrail.ie/home/>

The nearest ferry port is Rosslare Harbour, 22km from the Irish National Heritage Park and approximately 20 minutes by car.

Wales to Rosslare:

Stena Line from Fishguard

<https://www.stenaline.ie/ferries-to-britain>

Irish Ferries from Pembroke

<https://www.irishferries.com/ie-en/to-ireland-from-britain/>

France to Rosslare:

Stena Line from Cherbourg

<https://www.stenaline.ie/ferries-to-france>

Irish Ferries from Cherbourg

<https://www.irishferries.com/ie-en/to-ireland-from-france/>

Irish Ferries from Roscoff

<https://www.irishferries.com/ie-en/to-ireland-from-france/>

Rosslare Europort to Wexford Town by Bus

Local Link Bus

<http://locallinkwexford.ie/wp-content/uploads/2017/09/Local-Link-Wexford-Route-387-Web.pdf>

There are approximately 5 buses per day. Journey time is approximately 50 minutes.

Expressway Bus (Bus Eireann)

<http://www.buseireann.ie/timetables/1475575098-40.pdf>

There are 6 buses per day. Journey time is approximately 25 minutes.

Rosslare Europort to Wexford Town by Train

Irish Rail

<http://www.irishrail.ie/>

There are approximately 4 trains per day to Wexford O' Hanrahan Station, taking about 20 minutes.

Dublin Port

Dublin Port is 140km from the Irish National Heritage Park and just under 2 hours by car.

Wales to Dublin:

Stena Line from Holyhead

<https://www.stenaline.ie/ferries-to-britain>

Irish Ferries from Holyhead

<https://www.irishferries.com/ie-en/to-ireland-from-britain/>

France to Dublin:

Irish Ferries from Cherbourg

<https://www.irishferries.com/ie-en/to-ireland-from-france/>

By Train

Irish Rail

<http://www.irishrail.ie/>

There are 5 trains per day, Monday to Saturday between Dublin Connolly Station and Wexford O' Hanrahan Station. There are 3 trains Sunday.

Journey time is approximately 2¾ hours.

http://www.irishrail.ie/media/08_dublin-rosslare.pdf

By Bus

Check the websites for pick-up locations in Dublin City and other stops along the route.

Expressway (Dublin City Centre to Wexford Town)

<https://expressway.ie/Route-2-dublin-airport-to-wexford>

Expressway runs 14 buses per day and takes 2 hours from Dublin City Centre to the centre of Wexford Town.

Wexford Bus (Dublin Airport to Wexford Town)

<https://www.wexfordbus.com/>

Wexford Bus runs up to 17 buses per day and takes 2 hours and 15 minutes from Dublin City Centre to the centre of Wexford Town.

Where to Stay

EBUKI provides this information with sole intention of assisting you in finding somewhere to stay. EBUKI does not endorse or recommend any particular accommodation, accommodation website or accommodation booking platform. EBUKI will not be held responsible for the standard of any accommodation or for the standard of service provided therein. It is up to you to do your own research on TripAdvisor or similar.

Camping

Ferrybank Caravan Park

<http://wexfordswimmingpool.ie/caravan/>

GPS: N 52° 20.40' W6° 27.11'

Ferrybank Caravan Park is located just 1km from the heart of Wexford Town, on the banks of the River Slaney.

Clayfest Specials (let them know when you book):

Tent Pitch €18

Campervan with Power €21

There is a kitchen and café area, ideal if the weather is bad (which is a very real risk in Ireland in September). There will also be a dedicated Clayfest social tent on site, for hanging out together in the evenings.

Campers can also avail of reduced rates for the swimming pool (with sauna and steam room).

<http://wexfordswimmingpool.ie/pool/>

Hostels

There are no hostels in Wexford Town. For budget accommodation, check:

<https://www.airbnb.ie/>

<https://www.couchsurfing.com/>

B&Bs and Hotels

There are numerous B&B and hotel options in Wexford Town. Check any of the online booking platforms.

Ferrycarrig Hotel is located less than 2km from the Irish National Heritage Park.

<https://www.ferrycarrighotel.ie/>

Riverbank House Hotel is located beside the campsite, if you want the luxury of a hotel while being close to the camping crew.

<https://www.riverbankhousehotel.com>

For all other Clayfest details click HERE

For all Conference details click HERE

For all tickets direct click HERE